

Looking after War Memorials and Honour Rolls

WARRNAMBOOL
RSL

FRIDAY
12 JUNE 2015

This free informative workshop will be held at Warrnambool RSL.

Warrnambool War Memorial on Cannon Hill.

Looking after War Memorials and Honour Rolls is a Heritage Skills Workshop presented by the Heritage Council of Victoria, Heritage Victoria in the Department of Environment, Land, Water and Planning and the Victorian Department of Premier and Cabinet.

This workshop is aimed at owners and managers of War Memorials and Honour Rolls and other historical sites.

It includes sessions on:

- Documentation and records
- DPC - Veterans Affairs Branch grant programs - Cathy Nash
- Materials: stones, mortars, inscriptions, gilding, metals
- Care, including cleaning and graffiti removal
- Care of timber honour boards

There will also be a tour of relevant sites to inspect practical examples from the course material. Lunch, morning and afternoon tea is included.

Presenters: David Young OAM, Adjunct Associate Professor at the University of Melbourne, is an experienced heritage consultant specialising in building materials conservation. Jenny Dickens is Heritage Victoria's materials conservation officer.

When: Friday, 12 June, 2014, 9 am - 5.00pm (Registration from 8.45am)

Where: Warrnambool RSL, Cnr Liebig and Merri Streets, Warrnambool.

Bookings essential: The workshop is free to attend but bookings are required.

Email: pauline.hitchins@delwp.vic.gov.au (including dietary requirements)

Enquiries: 03 9208 3622

NOTE: Places are limited: only attendees with a booking will be accommodated.

This is the final workshop in this series.